Crew Couple | Charter Operations | Season 2027

Kristina Weissenbacher & Jürgen Prutsch

Over the last years, we have spent much of our free time boating throughout Croatia, gaining practical experience and developing a genuine passion for life at sea.

We are a motivated and reliable crew couple looking to support charter operations in Ibiza and the Mediterranean. This profile highlights our combined strengths and shared experience as a team. Our detailed individual backgrounds, professional experience and personal skills are included in our separate CVs.
Together, we bring a strong service mindset, practical private boating experience, calm communication and a hands-on attitude. We work well as a couple, understand each other's strengths and are used to taking responsibility in guest-facing environments.
Our goal is to support safe, smooth and memorable charter experiences with professionalism, reliability and genuine enthusiasm for life on the water.

OUR MOTIVATION

For us, living and working by the sea is more than just a dream — it is the lifestyle we truly wish to build. We are deeply motivated to enter the yachting industry, turn our passion for boating into a profession and dedicate ourselves to creating unforgettable moments on the water for our guests.

We are looking to enter the yachting industry for the 2027 season
